10. Risk statement

Rule 3 of the Racing Rules of Sailing states: "The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is hers alone".

Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk.

By taking part in the event, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:

- They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions.
- Their boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate.
- The provision of a race management team, patrol boats and other officials and volunteers by the event organiser does not relieve them of their own responsibilities.
- The provision of patrol boat cover is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances.
- It is their responsibility to familiarise themselves with any risks specific to this venue or this event drawn to their attention in any rules and information produced.
- For the venue or event and to attend any safety briefing held for the event.
- Their boat is adequately insured against third party claims.

11 Rights and Copyright

By participating in this event, competitors automatically grant rights in perpetuity and without compensation to the organising authority (i) to make any photography, audio and video recording at the venue, or on the water, from the time of their arrival at the venue until their final departure, and (ii) to use and show such photography, audio and video recording (and other reproductions of them) at the discretion of the organising authority.
